

THE WEEK IN ASTORIA SOCIETY

All items of social or personal nature will please be sent to Miss Alert, 144 Duane street, Phone Red 2091. No communication will be received later than 10 o'clock Saturday morning, except in case of an event occurring later than that time.

The social events of the week were interspersed with several public entertainments, which both detracted and attracted from the usual order of tea, ball or soiree.

The Pixie operetta has taken, for all of seven days, many of those from the ranks who entertain and are entertained.

The performance reflected much credit on the participants and managers, considering the short time which they were in rehearsal. The most striking feature, perhaps, was the Amazon chorus drill which was composed of many most attractive young matrons and maids of the town and involved several rather difficult figures. There were other charming effects and on the whole the local public was very enjoyably entertained, as is usual with these affairs.

The younger set's dancing club postponed its weekly dance, until the coming week on account of this.

There were two weddings of special social importance and interest on account of the prominence and popularity of all the parties concerned, although one of them was a very quiet affair at which only immediate relatives and intimate friends were present.

Sunday, Mr. Charles Vaughn Brown and Miss Anna Kopp were married at the home of the bride's parents in Seaside, as was briefly announced last week. The cottage was draped with vines and ferns from the neighboring wildwood. The impressive ceremony of marriage, of the Catholic church, was performed by Rev. Father Dellman, and after the congratulations and speedwells, which were showered upon the pair, Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on the evening train, bound for the Sound cities to spend a short tour.

Bergman Kaffe Klatch.

About fifty, members of the Queen Louise lodge, and friends, assembled at the home of the Hon. Isaac Bergman and Mrs. Bergman, on Bond street last Wednesday. The meeting was made a special occasion by the event of Mrs. Bergman's birthday, which was celebrated during the afternoon and toasted through the medium of many excellent cups of coffee, which, together with the pastries of German home baking, proclaimed again, the exquisite hospitality of the hostess. The company were laughingly diverted by the humorous introduction which was made by Mrs. Bergman at coffee, of a "new sister" to the lodge, which proved to be a tea warmer, of German manufacture, in the form of an ample-waisted and bearded Mrs. Katzenjammer, which personage is emphatically of German origin.

A very interesting letter was read in honor of the day from Mrs. Faurd, who is an absent sister of this city, now visiting with Mrs. Bergman's relatives, in Chemnitz, Saxony. Many gifts were received, from home friends and from the Fatherland, in remembrance of the birthday of this most estimable lady, whose benevolence and hospitality are so well known. The many guests spent a thoroughly delightful afternoon in the spacious parlors, which are perhaps the most remarkable in the city for the purely German decorations and furniture which adorn with quaint and priceless forms this charming home.

Graham Afternoon.

Mrs. H. C. Graham entertained a large party of ladies on Friday afternoon at her home. Dainty refreshments were served and musical and literary selections by Mrs. Lulu Deibe and Miss Annie Oleson, whose talents are well known, added much pleasure to the event.

Miss Ida Linenweber gave an evening at home to a number of young ladies Saturday. Those present were: The Misses Ethel, Alice and Gertrude Blinn, Elizabeth Bussey, Margaret Bussey, Anne McLean, Amy Rannels, Jessie Kellman, Esther Gearheart and Lena Smith.

Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kinkella celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage Friday evening. A large number of friends gathered at their home, in honor of the eventful day, bringing with them many tokens of silver and many merry wishes for the future. The evening was happily passed in games and conversation and at the banquet table laden.

Skating Club.

The Skating Club was out Friday evening, although it was raining again, enjoying two or three hours on rollers to the accompaniment of the very good music furnished by the brass band. There are many extremely graceful skaters, especially among the ladies, and the diversion remains very popular and very fascinating to watch.

Pastime Club.

Mrs. George Colwell entertained the ladies of the Pastime club at their last meeting on Friday. Mrs. A. E. Keene was winner of the ladies' first prize and Mr. Welch the gentlemen's.

Mrs. Lounsbury entertained at six-handed euchre on Friday. Mrs. Otto Heilborn was winner of the prize.

Thursday Club.

Miss Margaret Higgins was hostess to the Thursday Afternoon club which met at her home this week. Miss Elmore was winner at cards.

D. M. C. D. Club.

The young ladies of the D. M. C. D. club were entertained by Miss Anna Campbell this week.

Degree of Honor.

The ladies of the Degree of Honor are to give another entertainment next Thursday.

Mrs. Minard entertained the ladies of the Lutheran Aid Society at her home in Uppertown last week.

Allen-Frederickson.

At 2:30 o'clock p. m. on Wednesday last, in the parlors of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thorvald Frederickson was pronounced the solemn and beautiful ceremony of Catholic ritual, by Rev. Father John Waters, when their only daughter, Maja, was married to Mr. John Tyson Allen.

Only the families of the young couple and a few intimate friends were present at this event in the pretty home, where the bride has lived from childhood, winning for herself much popularity and admiration, by her charming personality and accomplishments.

The groom's brother, Albert, was best man, and Miss Grace Stokes of this city was bridesmaid.

Here the health of the bride was drunk and after more intimate congratulations, the party proceeded to the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Allen, on Ninth street, where a reception was held to the scores of friends of both parties, who thronged to and fro from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. The parlors were beautifully decorated with Oregon grape, carnations and potted plants. The dining room where punch and cakes were served was especially beautiful in red. The gown of the bride was Philippine native cloth of fine shimmering texture, over white silk, with veil and orange blossoms, which enhanced the dainty beauty of the wearer.

The bride's mother wore brown silk voile and lace and the groom's mother cream silk mull over halloisette silk. Many other beautiful costumes were in evidence, which space forbids mention of. Some of the ladies who served were Mrs. Rildsleigh, Mrs. Richard Carruthers, Mrs. Gilbert, sister of Mrs. A. V. Allen, Mrs. George Warren and Miss Mabel Carleton Allen received.

On the 6:30 train the young married people left for a bridal journey, after which they will return to ensconce in the cozy bungalow home on Ninth street just prepared for their entrance.

Miss Gilbert is in the city for a short time, visiting her sister, Mrs. A. V. Allen.

Tuesday afternoon a pleasant surprise party was given Mrs. Theo Lindus at her home in Alderbrook by the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Alderbrook Presbyterian church. Mrs. Lindus has acted as president of the Aid Society since its organization and in remembrance of her good work towards both the Society and the church circle, she was presented with a beautiful silver piece. The afternoon was spent most enjoyably.

Musical at St. Mary's.

A fair number were out on last Monday evening to attend the entertainment of music which was furnished by the ladies of the Altar Society of the Catholic church. Among the many very enjoyable numbers presented it would be appropriate to mention that contributed by two small children, Little Miss Edith and Master Frank Lindstrom, of Uppertown, who rendered the "Angel's Serenade" on violins. In such a finished manner as to call forth much favorable acquiry for the future. Mr. John Claire Montelth of Portland, whose voice of rare timbre and quality has been heard with pleasure on other occasions, favored the appreciative audience with two selections.

Miss Margaret Higgins is in Portland, where she will spend the week in visiting her aunt, Mrs. Beckwith, of that city. MISS ALERT.

Neglected Colds Threaten Life.

(From the Chicago Tribune.) "Don't trifle with a cold" is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established rule is to the terms of diphtheria what money is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold. Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

Pine Saive Carbolyzed acts like a poultice; highly antiseptic, extensively used for Eczema, for chapped hands and lips, cuts, burns. Sold by Frank Hart's Drug Store.

BACKACHE AND DESPONDENCY

Are both symptoms of organic derangement, and nature's warning to women of a trouble which will sooner or later declare itself.

How often do we hear women say, "It seems as though my back would break." Yet they continue to drag along and suffer with aches in the small of the back, pain low down in the side, dragging sensations, nervousness and no ambition.

They do not realize that the back is the main-spring of woman's organism and quickly indicates by aching a diseased condition of the feminine organs or kidneys, and that aches and pains will continue until the cause is removed.

made from native roots and herbs has been for many years the most successful remedy in such cases. No other medicine has such a record of cures of feminine ills.

Miss Lena Nagel, of 117 Morgan St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes:—"I was completely worn out and on the verge of nervous prostration. My back ached all the time. I had dreadful periods of pain, was subject to fits of crying and extreme nervousness, and was always weak and tired. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Falling and Displacements, and all Organic Diseases. Dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage. It strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache and Indigestion and invigorates the whole feminine system.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.
